NANCY HORAN AT TALIESIN!

In 1911, Frank Lloyd Wright built a natural house of wood and stone in Spring Green, WI, as a haven for himself and his love, Mamah Borthwick Cheney. He named it Taliesin.

Taliesin plays a key role in Nancy Horan's acclaimed book, Loving Frank. The author will be making a special appearance in Spring Green, WI, for a book signing and tour event. Led by Taliesin Preservation, Inc. historian Keiran Murphy, and accompanied by Ms. Horan, guests will be taken on a tour of Taliesin - a place whose original spirit can still be felt nearly 100 years after it was created.

Ticket holders will hear a reading by Horan at Taliesin during their tour, followed by lunch and a private book signing with the author at the Frank Lloyd Wright Visitor Center.

A one-hour public reading and book signing at the Frank Lloyd Wright Visitor Center will be available at 4:00 p.m.
