FRANK LLOYD WRIGHT VISITOR CENTER AT RIVERVIEW TERRACE $1,200 - $3,200

INDOOR CAPACITY: 125

The Frank Lloyd Wright Visitor Center at Riverview Terrace is on the National Register of Historic Places. It was designed by Wright in 1953 as a “gateway to Taliesin” and is currently home to Riverview Terrace Cafe – the only remaining Frank Lloyd Wright-designed restaurant in the world.

Here, the beauty of the Wisconsin River takes center stage via a large band of windows that look out over the surrounding Driftless landscape.

Surrounded by Wright’s organic architecture, it provides a breathtaking backdrop for any event.

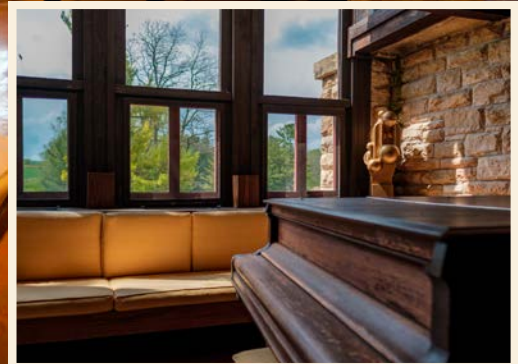

This venue is ADA-accessible and can be divided into up to three rooms for added flexibility.

HILLSIDE ASSEMBLY HALL $3,000

Closed in 2026 for Preservation Work

INDOOR CAPACITY: UP TO 60

Enjoy this bright and expansive two-story room as a setting for your next event. This space captures Wright's forward-thinking and innovative ambition in "breaking the box."

Part of the original Hillside Home School, the Assembly Hall has provided a place to gather since 1903. Today, it remains an inviting space for building community and hosting medium-sized celebrations. This multi-functional venue is perfect for workshops, working lunches, networking, cocktail mixers, dinner parties, and more.

Versatile and open, the Assembly Hall offers endless possibilities for private events.

HILLSIDE DINING HALL $4,500

INDOOR CAPACITY: UP TO 60

Treat your guests to a gathering they'll never forget, surrounded by original artifacts and bathed in the glow of Wright's signature pendant lights in Hillside Dining Hall.

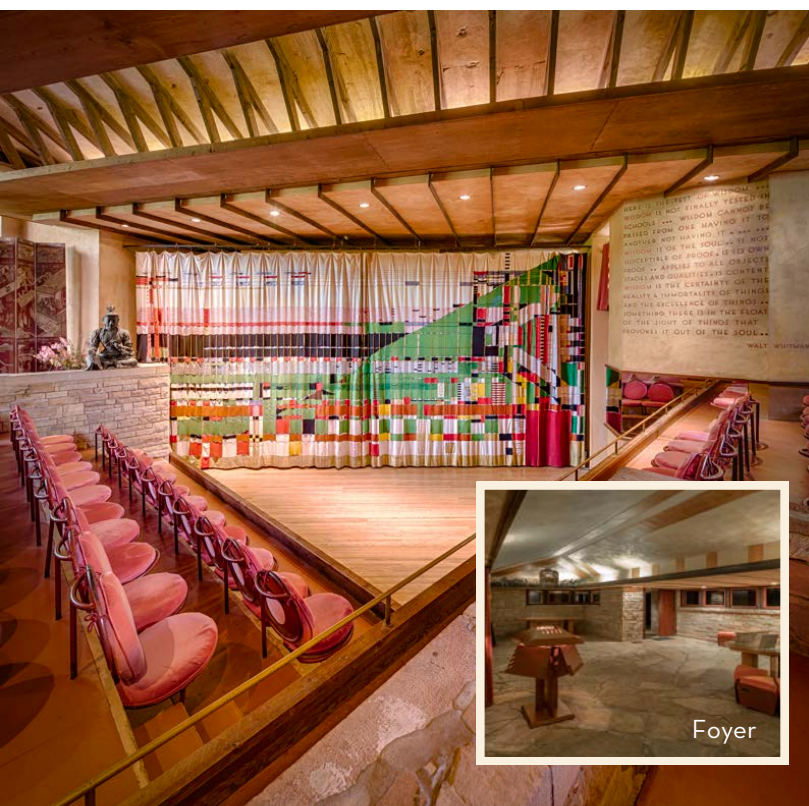

The Dining Hall was one of the later additions to the Hillside Complex and was completed by Wright's apprentices in 1955 after a fire destroyed the classrooms that previously stood in its place.

Today, we invite you and your group to pull up a Wright-designed chair and eat at the same tables where the Taliesin Fellowship once came together for three meals a day. You'll find that history, architecture, and community uniquely convene in this space to create a truly memorable dining experience.

HILLSIDE THEATER $5,000

INDOOR CAPACITY: UP TO 100

Settle in to this intimate space and marvel at the magnificent acoustics as you delight in the comfort of the newly restored Hillside Theater. From its earliest days to the refurbished 1955 structure that stands today, Hillside Theater has served as a gathering place for communities and a hub for shared appreciation of the arts.

Guests will appreciate fresh paint and plasterwork, improved climate control, ADA-accessible bathrooms, and room for more people on stage. These recent improvements create an inviting and inclusive space that's ideal for lectures, symposia, private film screenings, and more.

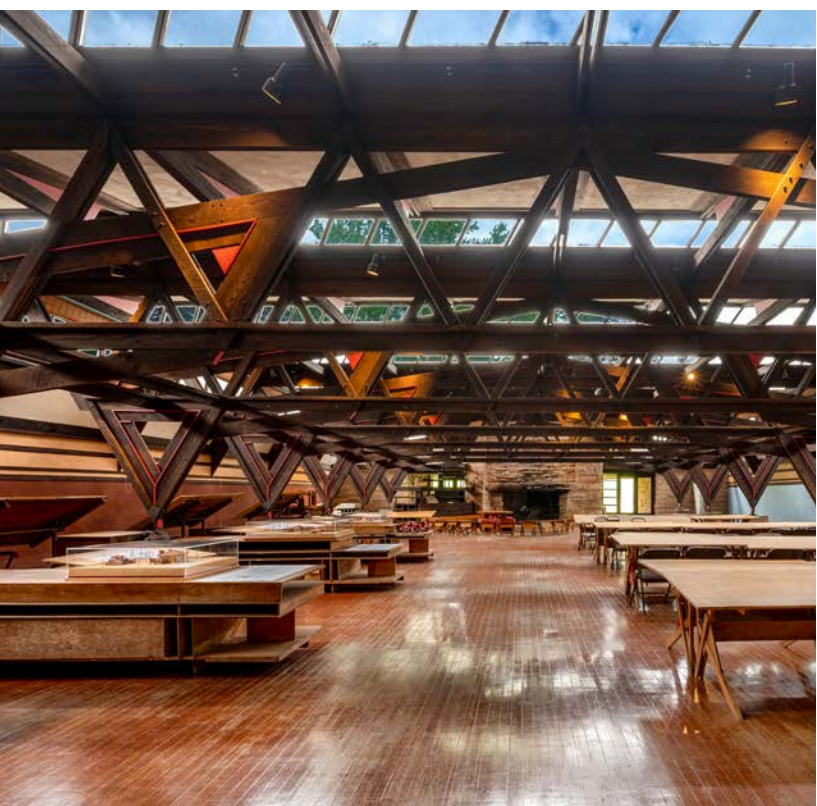

The foyer has a bar and ample space for a pre- or post-event reception.

HILLSIDE DRAFTING STUDIO $5,000

INDOOR CAPACITY: UP TO 75

Wright in Hillside Drafting Studio, 1956. Courtesy of the Frank Lloyd Wright Foundation Archives (The Museum of Modern Art | Avery Architectural & Fine Arts Library, Columbia University, New York). All Rights Reserved.

Immerse yourself in organic design while bringing your event to new heights inside Hillside Drafting Studio.

Wright's iconic addition to the Hillside building brings nature inside with his aptly named "abstract forest." Watch as the room fills with dappled light from the clerestory windows down through the exposed beams of the trees.

Invite your guests to follow in the footsteps of architects of years past by settling in at the plywood drafting tables to exercise their creative impulses. This innovative and expansive space can host a variety of events such as workshops, lectures, corporate retreats, and more.

TALIESIN $13,500

INDOOR CAPACITY: 50 | INDOOR + OUTDOOR CAPACITY: 125

If you seek the best of everything, Taliesin is for you. Frank Lloyd Wright created this iconic place and has made his home a legacy for hospitality. Taliesin is the perfect place for large or small functions.

Step back in time and host a social or business event just as Wright did. Your entire group will feel like cherished guests of the Wrights as you dwell in their living room and indoor/outdoor surroundings.

Taliesin is the crown jewel of the spaces we offer. Your event venue should be as unique as you and your guests. The surrounding Driftless area will create a stunning backdrop, viewable from all sides and angles, creating unforgettable memories.

WRIGHT'S PERSONAL DRAFTING STUDIO $6,000

INDOOR CAPACITY: 25 | INDOOR + OUTDOOR CAPACITY: 50

Frank Lloyd Wright's personal drafting studio is located adjacent to the main part of the home and courtyards.

Wright's personal drafting studio invites meeting planners to break out into smaller groups or host an exclusive dinner party for small and intimate affairs.

This room is in the heart of the Taliesin property and is where Wright famously designed iconic structures including Fallingwater and The Guggenheim.

It features built-in furniture, several seating alcoves, and access to the garden court out front.

TAN-Y-DERI $4,150

INDOOR CAPACITY: 40 | INDOOR + OUTDOOR CAPACITY: 125

With sweeping panoramic views of the Taliesin estate, Tan-y-Deri is the perfect place for gathering and convening. Designed for Wright's sister, this prairie-style home offers a kitchen, living room, and open lawn.

Tan-y-Deri is casual in design, surrounded by a shady grove of Bur Oak trees, and steps away from the famed Romeo and Juliet Windmill.

Tan-y-Deri has undergone a complete and comprehensive restoration and offers modern amenities in addition to spectacular views.

Flexibility for daytime functions and a clean slate for outdoor events await your creativity.

PERSONAL / NON-COMMERCIAL PHOTOSHOOTS $250/hour
